Novi Sad

Nestled on the banks of the Danube and the slopes of Fruška Gora hills in northern Serbia, Novi Sad is the administrative, economic, educational and cultural centre of the Autonomous Province of Vojvodina. As the second largest city in Serbia, the city is proud to be truly multi-confessional, multi-ethnic, multilingual and multicultural environment. While preserving its tradition, Novi Sad offers its citizens modern and comfortable life.

Given the wealth of diversity with the focus on inter-cultural dialogue and the active youth, Novi Sad has been awarded the title of the European Youth Capital for 2019 and the European Capital of Culture for 2021.

International Relations

• The Faculty has signed the cooperation protocols with many renowned higher education institutions and is proud of its exquisite cooperation with numerous embassies and cultural centres such as Hanban, French Institute in Serbia, the Austrian Cultural Forum, DAAD, Camões Institute, Yunus Emre Institute, Italian Cultural Centre, Cultural Centre of Iran, AUF, Indian Council for Cultural Relations etc. In cooperation with these partners and with the support of the foreign embassies in Serbia (Korean, Mexican, French, Norwegian and many others) numerous activities are being organised, such as international conferences, film projections, language courses, lectures and exhibitions.

• The International Relations Office is there to manage the international mobility for the staff and students at the Faculty offering support and guidance, and assisting visiting lecturers and guests from around the globe.

• The Faculty is active in international projects onalulating scientific research and mobility within various programmes - Erasmus+, Horizon2020, CEEPUS, COST Actions, Tempus etc.

Library

• The special treasure of the Faculty is the Library which holds more than 600,000 titles in its central reading room, 17 departmental libraries and the central depository. It is the largest and oldest higher education library at the University of Novi Sad.

• The collections of the Library include legacies, old and rare books, and current publications, both Serbian and foreign, which are the basis for teaching and research at the Faculty of Philosophy.

• The section of old and rare books preserves the oldest book in the library dating from 1566. To make the rare items and all other publications available to everyone, they are currently being digitalised.

We kindly invite you to explore the possibilities for cooperation with the Faculty of Philosophy.
