UIR SUMMER SCHOOL

The International University of Rabat (UIR) summer school 2019 is a 4-week intensive program offering a variety of choices tracks) of language and content courses. In its second edition, the 2019 summer school offers courses :

- Modern Standard Arabic (MSA) (from beginning to advanced levels),
- Moroccan Colloquial Arabic (darija),
- MENA area studies.

Students attending this program can earn up to 16 ECTS, equivalent to 6 American credits. The credits earned are transferrable.

COMPONENTS

The UIR summer school consists of two program components:

1. Summer Arabic Program (SAP)

The Summer Arabic program aims to significantly increase students' learning and fluency in MSA and enhance their ability to communicate with confidence. Classes in darija are offered to help students with everyday interactions with locals on and off campus sites. Students will have opportunities to put their language skills to use through community service, workshops, sports activities and class presentations.

The Summer Arabic program includes 45 contact hours (8 ECTS/ 3 American credits) of MSA and 24 contact hours of darija (4 ECTS/ 1.5 American credits).

2. MENA Area Studies

The MENA Area Studies Program aims to introduce international students to the region through the study of the culture, history, society, and politics. Students make their course selection from the following, earning up to 8 ECTS/ 3 American Credits:

- Street Ethnographies: Narrating the City (4 ECTS),
- History of the Arab World (4 ECTS),
- Moorish Art and Islamic Architecture (4 ECTS),
- International Politics of the Mediterranean and the Maghreb (4 ECTS).

PROGRAM ACTIVITIES

1. Tour of Rabat

Rabat, the capital of Morocco, is an elegant city that follows the usual structure of major Moroccan imperial cities with the original downtown, which is called medina, surrounded by new modern neighborhoods.

Rabat is rather quiet and is home to many tourist attractions such as: The Casbah of the Oudayas and King Mohammed V Mausoleum. A tour of Rabat is organized for program participants at the beginning of the program.

2. Arabic Calligraphy Workshop

Arabic calligraphy is the artistic practice of handwriting and calligraphy based on the alphabet. It is known in Arabic as khatt (Arabic: خط), derived from the word 'line', 'design', or 'construction'. The Kufi model, featured here, is the oldest form and most widely used of the Arabic script. A practical calligraphy workshop is organized for the benefit of students.

3. Visit to Weekly Souq in Sidi Allal Al-Bahraoui

Souks and markets are a major feature in Moroccan life, and among the country's greatest attractions. Each major city and town in Morocco has a special weekly souk.

Villages in the country-side also have local souks which are usually held one day each week in an open field or outside the walled town squares. Making a Souk visit is one of the most significant learning experience.

TESTIMONIAL

Kayla Zamanian, USA, Summer School 2018

“My experience in Morocco and at UIR can be summed up simply as a story of human kindness, generosity, and liberated learning. I am eternally grateful that UIR... guided me with a team of the most selfless, wise, and genuine intellects I’ve ever met—who provided me with a space and the resources to explore, discuss, and indulge in my greatest interests. My 3 weeks here in Morocco and at UIR are something that I will never forget. I have developed a new family, home, and persona here and I can’t wait to return.”
