

8 September (Friday) 2023

09:00	Visit of the underground world of the Petrovaradin fortress (guided tour in English)
	Parallel sessions III
	Session (Venue: Cinema hall): Blaustein and Husserl Chair: Nevena Jevtić	Session (Venue: Congress hall): Theology, time and expectations Chair: Uldis Vēgners
11:00-11:30	Witold Płotka (Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw) "Phenomenology as Descriptive Psychology? Blaustein's Account of How to Describe Mental Phenomena"	Michal Lipták (Institute of Philosophy SAS) "God without God: Husserl's Philosophical Theology and Its Place in History of Philosophy"
11:30-12:00	Daniele Nuccilli (Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw) "The Problem of Presentations in Blaustein: A Route in the Early Phenomenology"	Michal Zvarik (Trnava University) "The Meaning of Sacrum in Jan Patočka's Philosophy of History"
12:00-12:30	Filip Borek (University of Warsaw, Charles University in Prague) "Ich-fremdheit: Blaustein's Criticism of the Husserlian Concept of Hyletic Data in the Light of Husserl's Late Philosophy"	Felipe Catalani (University of São Paulo) "Future as lived time: Günther Anders on time, history and historical expectations"
12:30-13:30	Lunch break
	Joint Session (Venue: Cinema hall): Patočka, notion of crisis and war Chair: Michal Zvarik
13:30-14:00	Jozef Majernik (Slovak Academy of Sciences) "Patočka's Husserlian Philosophy of History"
14:00-14:30	Christian Murphy (Leiden University) "Iatrogenic Crisis: What Patočka's historical schema reveals of the origins of Husserl's crisis"
14:30-15:00	Aengus Daly (Bergische Universität Wuppertal) "Escaping the Lure of Circumstances: Access to the Past in Thucydides' The Peloponnesian War"
15:00-15:30	Coffee break
15:30-16:30	Closing lecture (Venue: Cinema hall): Marie Antonios Sassine (Dominican University College Collège universitaire dominicain in Ottawa) "Jan Patočka: Freedom to Embrace History"	